

AUSTRALIA'S MOST COMPREHENSIVE AND AWARD-WINNING POLITICAL TRAINING PROGRAM

Pathways to Politics for Women is increasing the number of women in Australian politics by equipping diverse women to boldly embrace their political ambitions, thrive as leaders and make a profound contribution to society.

Through comprehensive practical training, workshops, mentoring and career-long support, Pathways to Politics provides unparalleled expertise for women who are serious about driving change through political leadership.

Pathways to Politics for Women is celebrating its 10th anniversary in 2025.

- Open to women across Australia. Program participation is fully funded through the support of the Trawalla Foundation and university partners.
- Applications for the 2025 intake will open nationally in March 2025.
- Participants are supported to realise their capabilities through practical training and workshops, Q&As and networking opportunities with high-profile guest presenters from across the political spectrum, including current and former politicians, media trainers, speechwriters and strategists.
- Training covers political vision, campaign planning, media training, speechwriting and leadership skills.
- Alums can apply to participate in a mentoring program where they are matched with mentors across the political spectrum who provide one-to-one guidance.

NATIONAL NETWORK AND PROGRAMS

Pathways to Politics for Women is a national, non-partisan initiative led by a dedicated national team and delivered in partnership with eight leading universities across every state and territory. Each program is uniquely tailored to reflect and respond to its local context.

The foundational Pathways to Politics program launched at the University of Melbourne in 2016, followed by programs at QUT in 2019, UNSW in 2021, Charles Darwin University in 2022, the University of Adelaide and University of Canberra in 2023, and The University of Western Australian and University of Tasmania in 2024.

This national network is led by the National Co-Convenors Sarah Buckley, CEO of the Trawalla Foundation, and Dr Meredith Martin, Director of the University of Melbourne's Pathways to Politics program.

The program was initiated through the vision of Carol Schwartz AO and established as an initiative of her family foundation, Trawalla Foundation, with Women's Leadership Institute Australia and the University of Melbourne.
